

Hello,

Thank you for your consideration of becoming a corporate sponsor of BunnAgain Rabbit Rescue and Education in Paradis, Louisiana. Currently, the rabbits are sheltered in an uninsulated backyard shed constructed of scrap materials. This spring, an outbreak of coccidiosis took seven rabbits and inadequate conditions forced Ms. Rome to temporarily cease her rescue efforts. Ms. Rome remains tirelessly committed to the animals in her care and brought them into her mobile home to shield them from oppressive summer temperatures.

Fundraising is underway to build a new insulated shelter, a value professionally estimated at $7,000. I received permission from Ms. Rome to apply for grants and other funding on BunnAgain's behalf and have investigated grant opportunities from various grant programs as well as corporate partnership. We are tremendously grateful for contributions of any size, and ask you to consider the following corporate sponsorship levels:

Mini Rex ($200+): Receive a handwritten thank you note and announcement accompanied by your logo on the BunnAgain Facebook page and website

Lionhead ($400+): Above benefits and a review on the online platform of your choice (company website, Yelp, etc.) highlighting partnership

Dutch ($600+): Above benefits and the opportunity to name an incoming rescue, named as a sponsor on all publicity related to the rabbit (Facebook posts, Adopt-a-Pet posts)

Ruby-Eyed ($800+): Above benefits and ongoing display of a company-supplied logo (maximum 8"x10") in the completed rabbit shelter

Flemish Giant ($1,000+): Above benefits and ongoing display of a company-supplied logo (maximum 12" x 16") in the completed rabbit shelter

Donations are gratefully accepted through PayPal (c/o lovemybuns411@outlook.com) as well as the dedicated GoFundMe page (www.gofundme.com/bunnagain-shed-project). This cause is personally meaningful because of the immeasurable joy my own two rescue rabbits have brought to me. As a clinical mental health counseling student, I plan to include Jack the Ripper and Judge Judy into my therapeutic work with my future clients. Please contact me if I may provide any additional information – this is a project I am tremendously enthused by and it would be an unprecedented pleasure to further discuss your company's involvement. I appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Carol Quinn
